

Keith Haring

Look at these pictures of Keith Haring's artwork. How do they make you feel? Are they joyful or sad?

Keith uses bright colours and a simple style to make positive images. Watch the video of Keith Haring: The Boy Who Just Kept Drawing to find out more information about his life and why he loved to draw so much.

©artestar

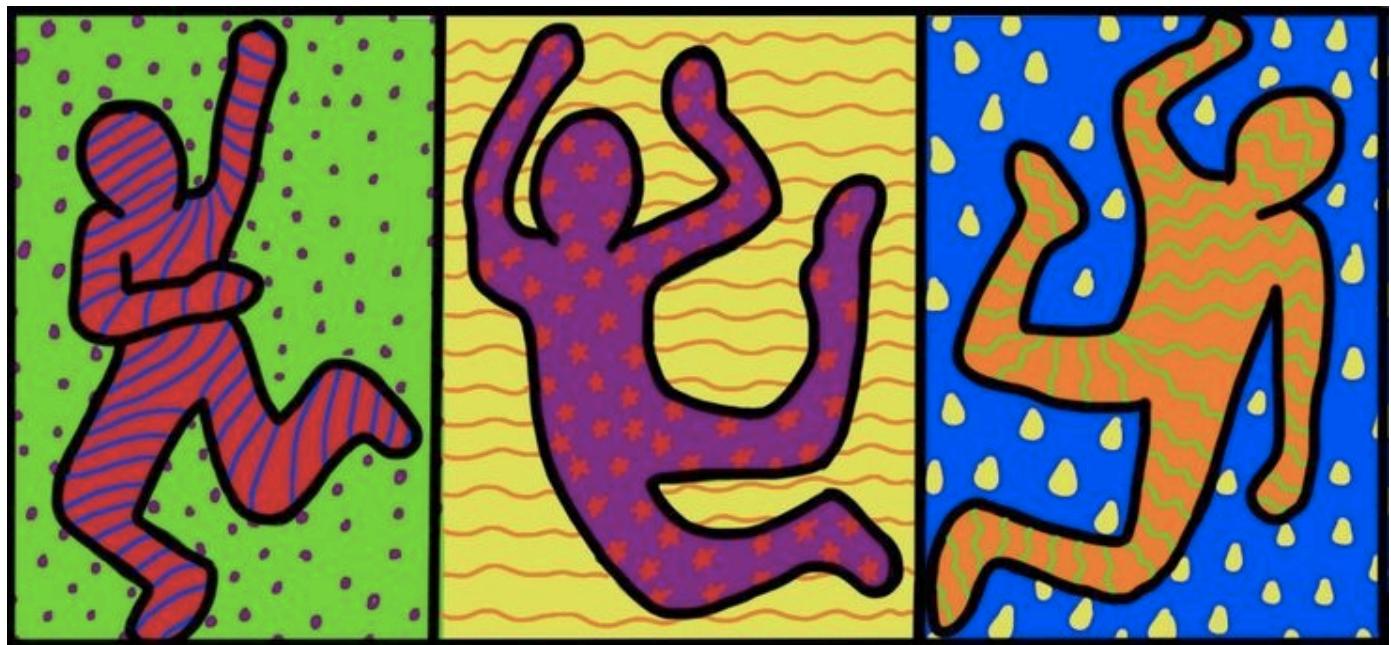

Create a piece of art inspired by Keith Haring. It does not have to look like his pictures but you should use them as inspiration. You could use the bold black lines, strong colours or dancing people as a starting point.

You can use any materials you like to create your artwork. Below are some ideas. Make sketches to practice your designs first.

Please send pictures of your artwork to your teachers.

Draw or paint on coloured paper:

Paint on old plates, bowls or mugs (ask first):

Use chalk like Keith did. You could draw and write a positive message on the floor outside your house or building (make sure you ask first):

Design your own T-shirt:

