

The Enormous Crocodile

Home Learning Challenge

Draw a picture to show what you think The Enormous Crocodile might want to eat for his dinner. You could try and label some of the things you give him to eat.

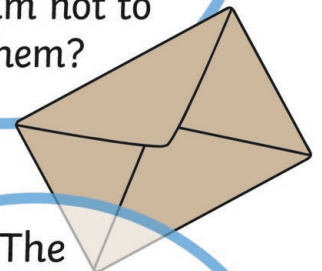

Create your own Enormous Crocodile out of junk modelling materials. What will you use for his sharp pointy teeth?

The Enormous Crocodile is a story written by a very famous author Roald Dahl. Can you find out about some other stories written by Roald Dahl?

The Enormous Crocodile wanted to eat the children for his dinner. Can you write him a letter explaining why this isn't nice and asking him not to eat them?

There were 10 coconuts on the tree which the crocodile was hiding in. If the crocodile couldn't catch the children and instead ate 6 of the coconuts for his dinner, how many coconuts would be left on the tree? You could draw a picture or use your fingers to help you work out the answer!

The other characters in the story were really nice and tried to help the children when the crocodile wanted to eat them. Can you do something nice for someone you know?
