James 3: 13 -18

True Wisdom

13 Is there anyone among you who is truly wise and understanding? Then he should show his wisdom by living right. He should do good things without being proud. A wise person does not brag. 14 But if you are selfish and have bitter jealousy in your hearts, you have no reason to brag. Your bragging is a lie that hides the truth. 15 That kind of "wisdom" does not come from God. That "wisdom" comes from the world. It is not spiritual. It is from the devil. 16 Where there is jealousy and selfishness, there will be confusion and every kind of evil. 17 But the wisdom that comes from God is like this: First, it is pure. Then it is also peaceful, gentle, and easy to please. This wisdom is always ready to help those who are troubled and to do good for others. This wisdom is always fair and honest. 18 When people work for peace in a peaceful way, they receive the good result of their right living.

Reflect

What do you think is better to be wise or to be clever? Why?

What's the wisest thing you have ever done or said?

Who is the wisest person you know?

What is it about them that makes you think they are wise?

Have you ever asked God to help you make a wise decision or help you be wise in what you say?

Challenge

How could you serve someone this week?

Maybe you could take their tray back at lunch? Wash up or load the dishwasher? Help carry a shopping bag or put away groceries?

Reflect

An amazing way that we can show humility at St Matthias is through our collection for harvest. It is a time where we bring non-perishable items to give away.

Our harvest festival will take place on the 2nd of October.

Our collection is now open.

Let's see which class can bring the most items!
