News from this week:

This week we have embraced our new play strategy. We are encouraging our children to play, be creative and take risk. This will be a long term plan that we will be rolling out across the next year- to the point where Father David has even agreed to let us build dens and put a rope swing in his meadow! For now, we are enjoying the water and sand and leaping onto crash mats on the playground. Please talk to your children about what it feels like on the playground now... we have had a significant reduction in behaviour issues AND most importantly the children are having fun. With play making up 20% of the school day we need to get it right. Watch this space for more to come...
